Day One

Welcome to Nashville!

The Opryland Hotel is truly a Christmas wonderland under roof. Some of the Opryland features include nine acres of indoor gardens lavishly decorated for Christmas with over two million lights, an outdoor nativity display that features special lighting effects and an audio rendition of the biblical story of the birth of Christ, a water fountain show, a 141-foot southern lights Christmas tree, three waterfalls, and more!

Day Two

Begin the day at Andrew Jackson's Hermitage, where a guided mansion tour and time on the grounds bring the 1830s and the life of America's seventh president into focus. Next, celebrate the season aboard the General Jackson Lunch Cruise, featuring a festive meal and a lively holiday show filled with country, gospel, bluegrass, and rhythm and blues favorites. This afternoon, return to Gaylord Opryland Resort to experience the incredible ICE! attraction, where elaborate frozen sculptures create a colorful winter wonderland. Then relax aboard a Delta Riverboat as you glide through the resort's lush indoor gardens, waterfalls, and waterways. This evening, enjoy the Gaylord Opryland Dinner & Christmas Show for a festive finish to a full day of Nashville holiday experiences. (Breakfast, Lunch Cruise, Dinner Show)

Day Three

Begin the day at legendary RCA Studio B, where Elvis Presley recorded more than 200 songs and artists including Dolly Parton, Roy Orbison, and Waylon Jennings helped shape country music history. Continue to the Country Music Hall of Fame & Museum, home to millions of artifacts, stage costumes, instruments, and recordings celebrating the story of American country music. This afternoon, discover Nashville on a guided city tour featuring landmarks such as the Ryman Auditorium, Honky Tonk Highway, Music Row, the State Capitol, Bicentennial Mall, and Centennial Park's full-scale replica of the Parthenon. Before the evening show, enjoy a hearty Southern meal served family-style at Paula Deen's Family Kitchen. Then cap off the day with a performance at the legendary Grand Ole Opry, where rising stars, current favorites, and country music legends share one of Nashville's most iconic stages. (Breakfast & Dinner)

Day Four

After our farewell breakfast we head home to our own holiday preparations!
